

Extended Hours Study Space

The Extended Hours Study Space is available to all affiliates of the Feinberg School of Medicine. All students should already have access to the space using their Northwestern University issued Northwestern Medicine badge or Wildcard. Hospital-issued badges will not work. If you are unable to access the space, and think that you should have access, please fill out the form below.

Information about accessing the space will be provided to approved users.

Fields marked with an asterisk (*) are required.
